

On-Hold Phone Message template for practice and hospital

[Name of Account] now offers Aquablation® therapy, a minimally invasive treatment option for men suffering from BPH, also known as an enlarged prostate. This advanced procedure uses a heat-free waterjet, controlled by robotic technology, to remove prostate tissue. Talk to your urologist to find out if Aquablation therapy is right for you. Learn more at Aquablation.com.

ML0684.A